AIA Australia Limited ('AIA Australia') provides insured benefits to members of the Seafarers and Maritime Super divisions of Maritime Super. Insured benefits are provided under a group insurance policy (Policy No MP9926) held by the Trustee. When you apply for insurance cover under the policy, you have a duty of disclosure to AIA Australia, as outlined below.

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of life insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and the insurer would not have entered into the contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, the insurer may avoid the contract within three years of entering into it. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may void the contract at any time. An insurer who is entitled to avoid a contract of insurance, may, within three years of entering into it, elect not to avoid it but to reduce the sum insured in accordance with a formula that takes into account the contribution that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to the insurer.

The Trustee's privacy statement

We may disclose this personal information to a number of parties, such as the administrator of the Fund, your employer(s), Maritime Super's professional advisers, insurer(s) and service providers, as required by law and/or as authorised by you. You may be entitled to gain access to personal information we may have on file in respect of you. If you wish to obtain access or have a complaint, please contact Member Services on 1800 757 607.
