

Missing Super Authorisation

With the excitement of changing jobs, it's easy to forget about the superannuation money that you have already accumulated. Additionally, in some instances (such as in some casual employment positions) you may receive superannuation payments without knowing about it.

Maritime Super frequently receives requests from members asking us to help locate their lost money. If you think you have an old superannuation account, Maritime Super can help you find it.

Maritime Super has access to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) Register of Lost Superannuation Accounts, which allows us to search the Register on your behalf to help you locate any lost superannuation money that belongs to you.

To find your lost super, complete, sign and return this form by fax to (02) 9261 3683 or (03) 9686 0377.

Alternatively, you may post this form to Maritime Super, Locked Bag 2001, QVB Post Office NSW 1230.

Quoting your Tax File Number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, Maritime Super is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, giving your TFN to Maritime Super will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- Maritime Super will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account(s) (subject to category rules)
- the tax on contributions to your superannuation account(s) will not increase
- other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits; and
- it will make it much easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all of your superannuation benefits when you retire.
